ADJUDICATION ORDER 2015-07-02

Dear Mr. Davey:

The Accountancy Board of Ohio (Board) conducted a formal disciplinary hearing on July 10, 2015 at 11:01 a.m. The purpose of the hearing was to determine what action should be taken against you for a violation of division 4701.16(A)(5) of the Ohio Revised Code pertaining to conviction of a felony under the laws of any state or of the United States. Our records indicate that you did not request a hearing in a timely manner, and were not present at that hearing. Section 4701.16(B) of the Revised Code provides that the Board may take action against your CPA certificate for violation of division 4701.16(A)(5). The Board members present voted 8-0 to revoke your CPA certificate. You may not apply for reinstatement until all court ordered requirements and conditions have been met, including restitution.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

You have the right to appeal this adjudication order. Your right to appeal is controlled by Section 119.02 of the Ohio Revised Code. This section states that if you wish to appeal, you must file the original of your notice of appeal with the Accountancy Board of Ohio within fifteen (15) days from the date of this order. The notice of appeal must actually be received by the Board, at the offices of the Accountancy Board of Ohio, 77 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215-6128, within fifteen (15) days from the date of this order. The notice of appeal must set forth the order appealed from and stating that the agency's order is not supported by reliable, probative, and substantial evidence and is not in accordance with law. The notice of appeal may, but need not, set forth the specific grounds of the party's appeal.

A copy of your notice of appeal must also be timely filed with the Court of Common Pleas of the appropriate county pursuant to the following provisions of Section 119.12 of the Ohio Revised Code:

Any party adversely affected by any order of an agency issued pursuant to an adjudication...denying the issuance or renewal of a license or registration of a licensee, or revoking or suspending a license...may appeal from the order of the agency to the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the licensee is located or the county in which the licensee is a resident... If any party appealing from the order is not a resident of and has no place of business in this state, the party may appeal to the court of common pleas of Franklin County. Any party adversely affected by any order of an agency issued pursuant to any other adjudication may appeal to the court of common pleas of Franklin County...

You must determine the appropriate court in which to file your notice of appeal in light of the action taken by the Board. You may wish to obtain legal advice in making this decision.

Simply filing a notice of appeal will not prevent this adjudication order from taking effect. If you wish to stay the effect of the adjudication order pending the outcome of the appeal, you must apply for and receive a stay order from the court of common pleas in which you filed your notice of appeal pursuant to Section 119.12 of the Ohio Revised Code.
